The consequences of Liberal rule in Salt Lake—in a masterly manner, entertaining the audience for an hour and a half. The meeting was very entiusiastic, the speaker being frequently inter, rapted with bursts of appliance.

Tobouganing is fine fun. We have been there and know whereof we speak. But it should be confined to proper times and places. Last evening as a number of ladies and gentlemen were going up Second East street, between South Temple and First South, they were dazed to see three or four loaded hand sleds dashing toward them with lightning speed. An accident was averted only by the dexterity of these persons. It seems that the sacrifice of a limb or a skull will have to be made before proper precautions are taken in this matter.

ON another page will be found an item setting forth that the publishers of the SALT LAKE HERALD had overlooked this office in making distributions of their holiday paper. "Oh, we can! Well, thank you, we're really obliged that you will allow us even that small privilege."

Then, it was said: "At the flash of his eye a blush of shame over the face of the leader came," but that was all, and it was only temporary. The scratching done was something prodigious, but the kiln-dried ticket was elected.

People are asking, too, why it was that the name of F. H. Dyer was dropped from the steam-baked ticket in the Twelfth ward. Was it because the Liberal leaders have a horror of the Receiver's backbone!

The dissatisfaction which has been smouldering in the Liberal reaks for so long seems to have at last broken out. For

The following officers were elected by years the Liberal party for what it termed cut-and-dried politics, and howled for the great and glorious freedom that attends an American election. And now they have it.

And some are unkind enough to locate it in the neck.

At the Eighteenth ward one prominent Liberal objected to the ticket on the ground that be didn't believe in being dictated to in politics, religion or anything else. "But who would resent the imputation that he was anything but a free man.

There was more or less uproar at all the wards, and save in one or two instances, the first important step of the leading Liberals was roundly denounced. The precinct conventions of the Liberal party will be held on Tuesday next, and will be attended by the following delegates, if the Tibons can be taken as authority on the matter.

AN OLD SWEDISH MAN ROLLED,

A Confidence Man Gets a Year in the County Jail-Other Judicial Jottings of Yesterday.

Yesterday was a more busy day about the police court than for some time past. The judge had to deal with a hard specinen of the genius "kid," who was brought before him on the complaint of his mother, Mrs. Anna Werthlin, residing on First West, between North and South Temple streets. She had complained to the police that her son Willie, aged eleven years, had threatened to kill her with a hatchet, and had with icicles and other missles broken several window lights, and was altogether uncontrolable. Two officers were dispatched to bring the lad in. On his way he behaved in the most frantic manner, and it was with some difficulty that he was finally anded at the city hall

The People's Club Have a Banner Presentation

A Pleasing Affair.

Thursday evening was the "banner night" in the history of the Seventeenth Ward Political club.

Hon. H. J. Grant was the speaker, and the way in which he showed how illiberal and deceptive the so-called "Liberals" are, and how they loved their country's flag some, but their carpet bag more, as evidenced by their placing it on top of the pole, erected by them, was enjoyed by his attentive and truth loving listeners.

Miss Vickie Clayton, "ith an appropriate address, in behalf of the ladies of the ward, presented the banner and two flags, one each for the marching and juve-lie clubs.

The arrangement of the marching club

Was with some difficulty that he was finally landed at the city hall.

The mother appeared and told her story to Attorney Houtz, who made out the complaint, and she subscribed her name to it. But when asked to swear to the complaint, ther maternal love overcame her and turning to the wayward youth, she wanted to know if he would behave himself if she would withdraw the complaint, but the little incorrigible answered in a defiant way that he could behave if he would, but he didn't think he would.

The judge took the boy in hand and soon succeeded in getting him to promise to be a good boy, but it was evident the promise was against his will, as he sat muttering and blinking in a most defiant way.

At the request of the mother, sentence was suspended. However, Judge Pyper emarked that if ever a boy needed to be sent to the reform school, this one did.

OTHER POLICE COURT BUSINESS.

Peter Wilson, a regular confidence man of not the largest brain, was tried for petit larceny. He was fined $100 and given a year in the county jail.

For some time past Neilson has been a bearder at Gallager's hotel on East Second South street, during which time his actions have been somewhat suspicious, but not sufficiently so to arouse any particular interest in him. Yesterday morning he brought to the hotel an old Swedish gentleman named Lindstrom, and put him to beat of drum, occupying seats on either side of the stand, at the roll of the drum, the necessary evolutions to make a very impressive picture were executed. A noticeable and unexplained feature was the large sized anchors seen on the hat of each member of the club.

The banner stood veiled at the speakers stand. Upon the announcement of the secretary that the presentation was in order, the drum, in the hands of Caleb Bywater, beat the roll, when the color bearer stepped forward, the company at the same time rising and presenting arms, the banner was unveiled. Then it was that the spectators away the connection of the hat anchors with the banners, for below the American eagles stood out in bold relief a beautiful gold anchor solid in appearance, thus identifying the club with the banner. Appropriate remarks were made by the president in accepting this beautiful token. The Juvenile club, under the care of Drill Sergeant Jacobs, made a fine appearance in their terraced seats under the stars and stripes.

The banner is on exhibition in the window of J. C. Cutler & Bro., with a card of upon particular in the proposed as follows: "Seventeenth ward banner. People's party. The cagle—the
